

SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS . . . Carrying out its tradition of awarding a scholarship to deserving eighth graders at Nativity school, Mrs. Laurence Derouin, grand regent of Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters, presents the certificates. The one-year scholarship was divided between two students this year, Mary Frances Buffalo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Buffalo, and Kathleen O'Brien, daughter of the Robert O'Briens. Mary Francis will enter the Bishop Montgomery High school and Kathleen will attend the St. Joseph Preparatory school of Orange.

Diana Family Picnic July 26

Sunday, July 26, is reserved by Redondo Beach Dianas and their families for the annual family picnic. Chosen site for fun and feasting this year is Peck Park in Santa Pedro at the corner of Western and Summerland. Starting at 11 a.m., Dianas and their families will assemble at picnic site No. 1. Picnic lunches and suppers, too, are the order of the day with games in the interim under the direction of Mrs. Leonard Comer, first vice-president and program chairman of Dianas.

Oil Women Will Hear Travel Talk

"Through South America with Skillet and Mop," or the life of the oilman's life overseas will be the speaker's topic when Desk and Derrick meets for dinner July 15 at the Lafayette Hotel in Long Beach. Spiriting the local petroleum women away from their jobs and into the homes of oil women abroad will be Mr. W. R. Faulk, now western region Sales Manager for the same company he spent at least two months in all but three South American countries. D&D Program Chairman Adelaide Erickson, also of H. C. Smith Oil Tool, promises a most entertaining and educational evening.

At the business meeting following, members will elect an alternate delegate to accompany President Leta Donkle of Wood-Callahan Oil Co. to San Antonio in October to attend the Association of Desk and Derrick Clubs Convention.

Lucille Waton, D&D Field Trip chairman, will take reservations for the third such trip this year, this time up the coast to Ventura on Aug. 29 to visit the Richfield off-shore drilling island.

Marina District Board Slates Year's Calendar

Marina district, CFWC, executive board meeting held at the Woman's club in Hawthorne last Friday was attended by Mrs. John Thuss, president of the Torrance Woman's club, Mrs. L. A. McCoy and Mrs. Herman Mitchell.

The convention dates set at this meeting were: General Federation, June 7-11, 1960, in Washington, D.C.; California Federation of Women's Clubs, May 10-13 at the Biltmore in Los Angeles; Marina District CFWC, at the Mira Mar Hotel in Santa Monica, April 7-8.

District councils were arranged for Wednesday, Sept. 30, at the Venice Woman's club; Monday, Nov. 30, at the El Segundo Woman's club; and Friday, Jan. 20, at the Santa Monica Bay Woman's club. Special workshops scheduled were: parliamentary law and federation extension, Sept. 17 and Nov. 19, Torrance Woman's club; parliamentary and federation, Jan. 21 and March 17 at the Venice Woman's club.

In the Garden and Conservation program the Marina district Flower Show was set for Oct. 16-17 at the Inglewood Woman's club and the Garden conference on Feb. 25 at the El Segundo Woman's club.

Mrs. Herman Mitchell was named as Marina district President's Aide at the Friday meeting.

Mrs. Thuss has also announced that Mrs. Erwin Moudy has been appointed corresponding secretary for the local club succeeding Mrs. John Taylor, who moved to Montebello.

Club Hears Talk on Foundation

The Pilot Club of Torrance, at its regular monthly dinner meeting Thursday night, had as its guest speaker Miss Jean Burden from the Meals for Millions Foundation.

Meals for Millions is one of the principal projects undertaken by the Pilot Club, and a collection is taken at each meeting during the year to provide the donation of the group. The Foundation is dedicated to the relief and prevention of starvation, and its program of furnishing Multi-Purpose Food to emergency areas and underdeveloped countries is supported by numerous governmental and civic organizations throughout the world.

Mrs. Charles E. Moore, chairman of the Public Affairs Committee, was in charge of the program, which was enjoyed by the members and their guests at Caprino Restaurant in Torrance. The business meeting was held after the program, and plans were discussed concerning the attendance at the annual convention of Pilot International in Chicago by Mrs. J. A. DeJaifre of Torrance, who is the Lieutenant-Governor of California District of Pilot International, and Mrs. C. B. Mitchell, the president of the local club, July 22 through 25.

Plans were also discussed for the booth which the club will have at the Rancho Days midway to assist the fund for the Torrance float in the Tournament of Roses Parade and the club's fund for community projects.

Club Installs New Officers

The Old Fashion Dance club, which meets every Friday night at 8:15 at 9th and Mecca St. in San Pedro, installed its new officers at its last meeting. They are Dr. Osmon Rohm, president; Walter Swam, vice president; Josephine Johnson, treasurer; Rose Marron, secretary; and Alice Cripe, cashier.

Other board members are Ed McNeary, Ambrose Rogers, Alma Rosecrantz and Vita Vasquez.

At each dance session there are door prizes and refreshments. Any dancers in the area wishing to join may do so.

Picnic Set July 14

Consumer Panel of Research will stage a "get-acquainted" picnic on July 14 at 11 a.m. at the Torrance Park, Arlington and Santa Fe. Members, their families and friends are invited. Guest speaker will be LuWanna Cormier, director.

Those interested in the organization or the picnic are invited to call Mrs. Quase or Mrs. Spaulding.

Class Slated For Mothers

A ten week training course for expectant mothers begins Tuesday, Aug. 4 at 9:15 a.m. at the Redondo Beach Women's Club, 400 South Broadway, Redondo.

Sponsored by the Redondo Beach Dianas, the Redondo Beach Senior Women's Club, and the American Institute of Family Relations, the class is for the benefit of mothers-to-be who may enroll as early as their fourth month of pregnancy.

Lasting two hours per session, the first hour is a lecture period, followed by one hour of physical training. Mrs. Roberta Gerdts, B.S., R.N., instructor of the class states that enrollment is limited and mothers-to-be are asked to make application for the class by calling Mrs. Gerdts as soon as possible.

. . . Ann Landers

(Continued from Page 9) are giving me arthritis of the bank-account. I know you're not a doctor but perhaps you can come up with a cure for this chronic ailment.

Just for the heck of it I've kept a record of the number of showers I've attended since since September 1st. The actual count is 22! Every shower means a gift. You can't get away under $1 and sometimes it runs as high as $3.50 — depending on the closeness of the friend or relative.

The girls who had the wedding showers last year are having the baby showers THIS year. The same ones are honored by their mothers, aunts, cousins, friends and neighbors. I know I'm not the only one who is fed to the gullet.

I'm sick of being soaked and I heartily recommend that you put in a pitch for a nice long dry spell. Thank you.

D. FUNCT
Dear D.: I've been up and down this mountain before, and the readers invariably inform me that they "love showers because they're such fun and how else can you get to go to so many wonderful parties for $1?"

So . . . to those of you who "love showers", blessings on the brides and the babies. To those who feel you're getting soaked, why don't you just say "NO"?

Confidential to THE ORGANIZATION MAN: Of course it's worth the gamble. Why not run it up the flagpole and see if anybody salutes it?

To learn the booby-traps of teenage drinking, write for ANN LANDERS' new booklet, "Teenage Drinking," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a large self-addressed, stamped envelope. (Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.) Copyright 1959, Field Enterprises, Inc.

Shower for Bride-Elect

Miss Joan Birchler, bride-elect, was complimented at a lovely pre-nuptial linen shower given by Mrs. Bert McVay at the home of Mrs. Cora M. Lewis, 25506 Narbonne Ave. in Lomita.

A pink and white color theme was used in decorating. A large white cake decorated with white bells and silver leaves centered the table. Encircling the cake were heart-shaped party cups. Also on the table was a huge pink heart inscribed with the names of the couple.

Bringing gifts for the future bride were Mmes. C. Sands, B. Manage, K. Hurst, G. Lolley, R. Faupel, R. Sivard, J. Crotty, C. Crawford, C. Lewis, P. Hill, Harbor City; Mrs. J. Rastellof, San Pedro; Mrs. R. Lewis, Long Beach; Misses Judy Smith, Carol Anne Birchler, Sherry Birchler and Darlene Ronnie of Torrance.

Unable to attend, but sending gifts, were Mmes. E. Hogan, L. Johnson, W. Matlock, E. Skillman, B. Kinn, V. Wheeler, P. Faupel, L. Frederickson, A. Marson, M. Anderson and R. Birchler.

BEST BUYS FOR THE WEEK

In Torrance Markets

at fairly comparable prices.

Salmon is Seafood of the Month, with Lobsters, Shrimp, Crabs, and Halibut as companion items.

Chickens (fryers) are moving up a little in price, but they are still among the best values. New-crop turkeys are coming on fast. Turkey production is expected to set a new record this year.

Eggs are steady in price . . . low, low price. A buy!

EASY-DO LA RUE FONDUE
Start the day before. Has delicate soufflé texture . . . but much more "durable." 4 generous servings:
4 slices white bread, 1 1/2 inches thick
1 lb. (2 cups) sharp cheddar cheese
4 eggs
3 cups milk
1/2 teaspoon dry mustard
1 teaspoon salt
Remove bread crusts and cut in cubes. Grate cheese. Alternate layers of bread cubes and cheese in 2-quart greased casserole. End with cheese on top. Beat eggs; add milk and seasonings. Pour over bread and cheese. Hold in refrigerator overnight. Bake in slow oven (325°F.) for one hour.
